We eat. We drink. We sing. We toast.
We have fun! We're the Wolfe Pack!
All Are Welcome!

Join fellow members of the Wolfe Pack, the literary society that celebrates all things Nero Wolfe, and Wolfean fans for a sumptuous meal in a gorgeous venue. Over the course of the evening, we celebrate Rex Stout's Nero Wolfe stories by singing pastiches; completing hilarious quizzes about the opus; and toasting our favorite characters—Mr. Stout, Mr. Wolfe, Archie, Fritz, and “Other.” Our keynoter is the one and only Ellen Krieger, the founder of the Wolfe Pack, Werowance Emerita, and the former Associate Publisher and Vice President, Simon & Schuster. The format of this banquet is similar to the annual Black Orchid Banquet held by the Wolfe Pack every December in New York City— for those of you not near New York, this is your chance to share this special experience!
